January 2002 Show

Can you believe it's already 2002? Time has really been flying for all of us here at Dept. 18. We've had a lot of changes over the past year but we're still here working hard to bring you fun music and video for your guests. And this new show is very exciting. From the licensed music to the new intermissions we are sure that you and your guests will find it very entertaining.

For January, we have continued our relationship with Big Idea and Eddie Coker by including them in this showtape. We have also found some new friends in a group called Trout Fishing in America. They are a band from Arkansas that has produced their own PBS special. Look for their song "Pico de Gallo" from that TV show as an intermission. In addition, we have also written and produced some new original CEC intermissions like "The Tube Explorer", a take off of the popular TV show "The Crocodile Hunter" and "Pasqually's Polka Minute". You can also look forward to a new cartoon called "Carl and Phil: Monkey Ninjas". This is a CEC TV exclusive cartoon developed by animator Deva George in partnership with Dept. 18.

We hope you enjoy the show. As always, if you have any suggestions or ideas for CEC TV please drop us a note at cectv@cecentertainment.com. Have a great first quarter!

"LAND OF 1000 DANCES" LIVE

*He can do the watusi
like my girl Lucy*

He's wild, crazy and can do the watusi like my girl Lucy. You guessed right, it's Chuck E Live. Get ready to have some fun performing the super new live show, "Land Of 1000 Dances". As always, be excited and creative when you perform this exciting new show. We look forward to hearing great things about you.

"HANK HOWDY TUBE EXPLORER"

"...you never know what lies around the bend."

G'day Mates. One of the really cool things about your new January show is The Tube Explorer. Hank Howdy, your host, leads you through an exciting look at one of Chuck E. Cheese's most excellent attractions, the Sky Tubes. But be alert and stay close, because you never know what lies around the bend.
